

Fernando Medeiros

is a Brazilian painter from Belo Horizonte, Minas Gerais who is well-known in the region for his accurate and vibrant representations and capturing Brazil's captivating essence.

He joined the Faculty of Fine Arts at UFMG (Federal University of Minas Gerais) in 1982 and has been in the business ever since.

His paintings depict traditional themes of Brazil such as carnival, shanty towns (favelas), soccer, and other landscapes of Rio

