Michael Leunig was born in Melbourne in 1945.

His drawings, prints, paintings and cartoons have been exhibited regularly at private and public galleries throughout Australia, and are held in both public and private collections in Australia and overseas.

In 1999 Michael Leunig was declared a national living treasure.