

Poetry Mad Libs

The game Mad Libs AKA Word Blanks, is a fun game for all ages where you blank out key words in a sentence and then add in new random words without knowing the context.

For example the sentence may read:

My _____ is very _____.

So you would ask for a Noun and an Adjective to fill in the blanks.

This game can be adjusted for players of any skill level. Those that are able can choose a word themselves OR you can offer bowls containing the required words. (Nouns, Adjectives, Verbs, Adverbs, etc.)

Once you have filled all the blanks you can then read out the funny sentences/ poems you have created.
